

Arts, Commerce & Science College, Arvi, Distt. Wardha

EMPATHY FOR GIRLS

Employability Skills Training for the Girls

Skill development and placement cell of Arts Commerce and Science College, Arvi, organised Employability Skills Training for the girls. Training starts from 21st July and will be completed on 28th July. During 11th a.m. to 5:00 p.m., the training is organised under the company social responsibility(CSR) by Mahindra Group of companies and Naandi Foundation, in collaboration with Arts, Commerce and Science College organised this training. Professional trainer Mitali Paltiwale has completed her professional degree from renowned colleges. The girls who have completed their graduation or post-graduation, as well as the girls of the final year of the degree course, are eligible for this training. The training is entitled Employability Skills-Empathy for girls. The training aims to make the girls employable at various companies, finance sector, and in banks. In this training, the girls are taught communication skills, Computer training, interview skills, how to make PPT, personality development and other activities. Every day the training starts at 11:00 a.m. and runs throughout the day. In all 67 girls have registered in this training. The member of skill development and placement cell Prof. Shailesh Khandare, through his innovative idea and the cooperation by Naandi Foundation's Shri Anurag Patankar this training has been organised. The coordinator, Prof. Dr Anup Gumble, and Prof. Dr. Neeraj Kendre worked hard for this program. In this training, the girls are given the timetable and accordingly, the hours of the day are divided into various sessions such as I am unique, body language and professional grooming, English language, Interview preparation, critical thinking, problem solving, conflict management, professional ethics recap and closing etc.

266G+54F, Antardoh Punarvasan, Arvi, Maharashtra 442201, India

Arvi
Maharashtra
India

2025-07-21(Mon) 11:29(am)

31°C
88°F

